Nicholasville and will yet go higher.

moved to the Simms farm, near North Middletown.

ing, by Scarlet Wilkes, to John Frisbee, Connellsville, Pa., for $300.

E. J. Dorsey, of Fleming, Thursday, a pair of mare mules for $450.

steers, at $3.75 per hundred.

Carlisle, Continental agent, at 10 cents

—R. P. Barnett sold 800 shocks of fodder to John T. Hughes, of Lexington, at 25 cents per shock, and is feeding about 100 head of horses for him.

—Reuben Clinkenbeard, of Jackstown neighborhood, bought of the Bedford heirs their interest of twelve acres in their grandfather Hosteter's estate, at $40 per acre.

—In Woodford county, Wharton Bros., at Keene, bought 1,000 bushels of wheat from J. W. Shields at $1 per bushel.
Riley & Collins, of Pinckard, bought 10, 000 bushels from Chris and Donnie Black also at a dollar.

—The wheat crop in Bourbon county will be shortest in years. The price of tobacco has been so good that it is feared that the farmers will overstock the market this year and reduce the price. Many will plant double the amount they did last year.

—The Tranter-Kenney Company, of Lexington, has recently issued a booklet entitled "Two Minutes or Better," which contains, along with other interesting matter, a table showing all the miles ever trotted or trotted or paced in two minutes or less, where, when, by what horse and by whom driven.

—John E. Madden's great three-year-old colt, Aristocracy, died at Churchill Downs, Saturday, of pneumonia. Pulsus is suffering from the same disease, and it is feared that he will also be lost. The death of Aristocracy means a loss of nearly $200,000 to Madden in a year through fire and disease.

been booked to Jay Bird: Lady Ham, dam of Hawthorne 2:06 1/4, the dam of Toney

Lücke, dam of Sister Ethel 2:19 and Frank Kenney 2:21, has been booked to Bourbon Jay.

—The war has already had the effect of an advance in the price of hogs. In the last few days there has been a jump of from 20 to 25 cents. Mr. Jonas Weil, who, with his brother, is a large dealer in cattle and hogs, reports a more active market, with prices ranging from 4 3/4 to 5 cents. Mr. Weil does not expect that the war will have any effect on cattle prices unless it should be protracted. Pork may be exported to better advantage than beef.
It can be better preserved and variations in weather conditions do not affect it to the degree that beef is affected. There has been little change in the cattle market in the last month or longer. It remains dull, shipments from the West continuing heavy. Mr. Weil expects improvement to set in by June. He reports that there are practically no fat cattle left in this section, all having been shipped earlier in the season. —Lexington Herald.

W. O. Hinton's Fire Insurance Agency.

W. O. Hinton, Agent for Milwaukee Mechanics' Insurance Company, has received the following letter from this Company:

To Our Agents:—We are pleased to advise that our loss in the Baltimore conflagration will not exceed $200,000.
Considering the Company's great financial strength, with total available assets of $2,926,281.42, with a net surplus over all liability of $1,887,209.12, will not cause a ripple or disturb the Company's methods of underwriting in the slightest degree. Such disasters are anticipated, and in no way affect the stability of our strong company. This is also another lesson that it pays to get insurance that insures. Our adjusters are now in Baltimore, paying in cash all loss claims.
Yours truly,

President.
